WHAT MAKES WHITE PLAINS SO BEAUTIFUL?

Flowering trees, daffodils, tulips! For fifty years, the all-volunteer White Plains Beautification Foundation (WPBF) has been embellishing our parks and other areas with flowers, shrubs, trees, three street clocks, and a carillon, as well as two fountains, a flagpole, a gazebo and a summerhouse in Tibbits Park, not to mention the creation and maintenance of more than 60 gardens. On their way to planting 20,000 daffodil bulbs, WPBF invites you to see for yourself this spring. Early bloomers, daffodils are followed by hundreds of tulips, and at the end of April, 160 cherry trees burst into bloom. It's definitely worth a spin around town via your wheels or your feet. All of this is made possible by the generosity of the public. WPBF always welcomes volunteers. If you are interested, please contact President Karen Quinn, quinn.kq@gmail.com. Be sure to also request that your name be added to the mailing list to receive a very special semi-annual newsletter. For more information, see website. www.wpbfb.org
